

Full Time Teacher of Humanities (With a Passion to Raise Attainment in Geography)
12 Months Temporary Position in the First Instance
Required for September 2019

At Lathom High School our core values centre around PROUD 'Perseverance, Responsibility, Ownership, Understanding, Determination. We are delighted to invite you to consider joining our team as we strive for success at all levels and work to provide secondary education of the highest possible quality for the community of Skelmersdale.

The Humanities Department at Lathom wishes to appoint a talented teacher of Humanities who has the potential to become an outstanding practitioner. The successful candidate must be committed to fostering pupil enjoyment and securing outstanding progress within our developing Humanities team. The position offers the opportunity for an experienced or newly qualified teacher to join a hardworking department that has firmly embedded high expectations of student attitude and attainment. You will be able to deliver a combination of Geography, RE and History to students across the ability range at both Key Stages 3 and 4. In return the successful candidate will be fully supported by strong leadership and experienced, friendly staff. A member of the Humanities team should take pride in their learning environment and teaching resources. We are looking for someone creative and willing to be flexible, someone with energy, resilience, a well-developed sense of humour and a commitment to go the extra mile.

There are many exciting opportunities at Lathom and we are committed to a robust CPD programme to develop all staff to be outstanding in their own right.

Student voice confirms that students enjoy their Humanities lessons and feel well supported in making good progress.

Recent Ofsted inspections have noted:

- Students are courteous, polite and their behaviour is good in lessons and around school
- The school is a happy place where students feel very well supported and cared for
- The school is an orderly and calm place for learning to take place
- Attitudes to learning in lessons are good
- The school's work to keep students safe and secure is outstanding

We would love to hear from you should you wish to discuss the position further or even better come along and meet us!

Full Time Teacher of Humanities With a Passion to Raise Attainment in Geography
12 Months Temporary Position in the First Instance
Required for September 2019

At Lathom High School our core values centre around PROUD Perseverance, Responsibility, Ownership, Understanding, Determination. We are delighted to invite you to consider joining our team as we strive for success at all levels and work to provide secondary education of the highest possible quality for the community of Skelmersdale.

The Humanities Department at Lathom wishes to appoint a talented teacher of Humanities who has the potential to become an outstanding practitioner. The successful candidate must be committed to fostering pupil enjoyment and securing outstanding progress within our developing Humanities team. The position offers the opportunity for an experienced or newly qualified teacher to join a hardworking department that has firmly embedded high expectations of student attitude and attainment. You will be able to deliver a combination of Geography, RE and History to students across the ability range at both Key Stages 3 and 4. In return the successful candidate will be fully supported by strong leadership and experienced, friendly staff. A member of the Humanities team should take pride in their learning environment and teaching resources. We are looking for someone creative and willing to be flexible, someone with energy, resilience, a well-developed sense of humour and a commitment to go the extra mile.

There are many exciting opportunities at Lathom and we are committed to a robust CPD programme to develop all staff to be outstanding in their own right.

Student voice confirms that students enjoy their Humanities lessons and feel well supported in making good progress.

Recent Ofsted inspections have noted:

Students are courteous, polite and their behaviour is good in lessons and around school

The school is a happy place where students feel very well supported and cared for

The school is an orderly and calm place for learning to take place

Attitudes to learning in lessons are good

The schools work to keep students safe and secure is outstanding

We would love to hear from you should you wish to discuss the position further or even better come along and meet us.